

"Joint Parental Rights and Responsibilities" shall be defined by NDCC 14-09-32 (1) as:

Parental rights and responsibilities”

Each parent of a child has the following rights and responsibilities:

- a. Right to access and obtain copies of the child’s educational, medical, dental, religious, insurance, and other records or information.
- b. Right to attend educational conferences concerning the child. This right does not require any school to hold a separate conference with each parent.
- c. Right to reasonable access to the child by written, telephonic and electronic means.
- d. Duty to inform the other parent as soon as reasonably possible of a serious accident or serious illness of which the child receives health care treatment. The parent shall provide to the other parent a description of the serious accident or illness, the time of the serious accident or illness, and the name and location of the treating health care provider.
- e. Duty to immediately inform the other parent of residential telephone numbers and address, and any changes to the same.
- f. Duty to keep the other parent informed of the name and address of the school the child attends.
